Good Heart and Willing Hand.

In storm or shine, two friends of mine Go forth to work or play. And when they visit poor men's homes, They bless them by the way. Tis willing hand I 'tis cheerful heart ! The two best friends I know,

Merrily sound the song !-

When they sit down to dine; The bread they cat is honey sweet, The water good as wine. They fill the purse with honest gold,

Without these twain, the poor complain Of evils hard to bear, But with them poverty grows rich, And finds a loaf to spare ! Their looks are fire-their words inspire-Their deeds give courage high About their knees the children run, there is nothing really surprising in the announcement. For who could believe that the poor, ignorant log-dealers of the back settlement of Renfrew, could every resist the bland nonsense and hard cash of the Inspector-General ? We make no bones of mentioning the word money in connection with Mr. Cayley's return, for it is now a fact indellibly impress. ed on the minds of all, that bribery has become a notorious aid to every victory of the Coalition. The Ministerial organs parade Cayley's majority in staring type, as your HUNDRED AND FORTY SEVEN Voles. If it read four hundred and forty-seven pounds spent in corruption, four bundred and fortyseven votes bought, or four hundred and forty-seven freemen's rights sold to a political huckster, we should have the faithful rendering of the phrase. Mr. Cayley, some years ago, undertook the financial responsibility of an association of blacksmiths at Niagara, called the Dock Company, and it (as an inevitable consequence) collapsed like a bubble ; its uffairs where nowhere, and its transactions floated in hopeless confusion through its ledgers, like the postscript of a school-girl's first Newmarket, Friday March 19, 1858. General Summary.

. It is with pleasure we announce to our numerous enquiring friends, that our bealth has so far improved as to afford a reasonable hope that in the course of three or four weeks

The election of a Municipal Councillor to supply the vacancy crused by the retirement of Mr. Jackson on account of ill bealth, takes place at the Court House, on Monday next.

we shall be able, to a certain extent, to resume the oversight of the New Era.

The Ministry, during the past week, have, on several divisions, been left in the minority by Upper Cauada, -atill they continue to rule us by a Lower Canadian majority. How long will suc a state of things be tolerated ?

Our friend Dr. Bull bas been honored with a mark of distinction, we perceive, by the present government-having received the appointment of Coroner. The appointment is all right enough-the Dr. being well qualified to fill the of fice ; but it looks like soft samler.

We have been requested to announce that a meeting of the Municipal Electors of this Village will be held in the Court House to-morrow (Saturday) evening, at half-past seven o'clock, for the purpose of nominating a fit candidate to fill the vacancy in the Council caused by the retirement of Mr. Jackson.

We wish to be distinctly understood that we are not responsible for the opinions of our correspondents.

To the Editor of the New Era.

Man," may have an influence for good on some | ments of the Attorney General were not new of the youthful readers of the New Era. How constantly fon their guard against those works of mination which lie hidden on the sea of false pleasure, rocks on which thousands and millions have made shipwreck.

It I ask the young man who is just forming his habits of life, or just beginning to indulge those habitual trains of thought out of which habits grow, to look around him, and mark the examples whose fortune, he would covet, or whose fate he would abhor. Even as we walk the streets, we meet with exhibitions of each extreme. Here, behold the patriarch, whose stock of vigor three-score years and ten seem handly to have impaired. His erect form; his firm step, his elastic limbs, and undimmed senses, are so many certificates of good conduct; or, rather, so many jewels and orders of notifity with which nature has honored him ion shows that his blood has never been corrapted; his pure breath that he has never yielded his digestive apparatus for a vintuers ceespool; his exact language and keen apprehensich, that his brain has never been drugged or stupified by the poisons of a distiller or tobacconist. Enjoying his appetites to the highest, he has preserved the power of enjoying them. Despite the moral of the school boy's story, he has eaten his cake and still kept it. As he drains the cup of life, there are no less at the bottom. His organs will reach the goal of existence together. Painlessly as a candle burns down in its socket, so will he expire; and a little imagination would convert him into another Enoch, translated from earth to a better world without the sting of death.

"But look at an opposite extreme, where an opposite history is reconled. What wreck so shoaking to behold as the wreck of a dissolute men?-the vigor of life exhausted, and yet the first steps in an honorable career not taken : in himself a lager house of diseases; dead, but, by a heatherish custom of society, not buried! Rogues have had the initial letter of their title burnt into the palms of their hands; even for murder, Cain was only branded on the forehead; but over the whole person of the debauches or the insbriate, the signatures of infamy are written. How nature brands him with stigma and opprobrium! How she hange labels all over him, to testify his disgust at his existence, and to admonish others to beware of his example! How she looses all his joints, sends tremors along his muscles, and bands forward his frame, as if to bring him upon all fours with kindred brutes, or to degrade him to the reptiles crawling. How she disfigures his countenance, as if intent upon obliterating all traces of her own image, so that she may awear she never made him! How she pours theum over his eyes, sends foul spirits to inhabit his breath, and shricks, as with a trumpel, form every part of his body, "BEHOLD A Braer!" Such a man may be seen in the streets of our cities every day; if tich enough, he may be found in the saloons, and at the tables of the "Upper Ten;" but surely, to every vinced that we shall find that due econony tion on the subject, with which he had not man of purity and honor, to every man whose wisdom as well as whose heart is unblemished the wretch who comes bleeding from the pillory, and redolent with its appropriate perfumes, would be a guest or a companion far less offensive and disgusting.

manly proportions, and in his cometiness, look on this pleture, and on this, and then say, after pervision over the public accounts has been the likeness of model he intends his own erect stature hild sublime countenance shall be conformed.

the youth who in defiance of Parental and Clerical warning walks forth a ready, and too willing victim of the Dovil of appetitite and deprayed nature, is torn by something harder than even the hoofs of wild horses, namely the horrors of temoreo and guilty conscience, and the misery and horror the guilty man feels here is only foretaste of that nursery which will last ETERNALLY, unless he obeys the call of CHRIST in the Gospel, and has his sine washed away in the plead which eleansath from all ain, even the blood of JESUS CHRIST. I thank God that I feel and know the truth contained in the Epistle of Paul the Apostle to the Ephesians 2nd chapter, and it is my prayer and earniest idesire that all men may be made partakers of like precious faith, and enabled with me to rejoice evermore, pray without ceasing, and in everything to give thanks.

Yours, truly, AMES A. DAVID-ON. St. Catherines, March. 12, 1859.

Fon a Four Stonach, or Merbid Inaction of the Boas, which produces general depression of the spirits and bad health, take from four to eight Pills at first, and smaller doses afterwards, until activity and strength are restored to the system.

Fon Nenvousness, Stok Headache, Nacses, Point in the Namach, Buck, or Side, take from four to eight pills on going to bed. If they do not operate sufficiently, take more the next day until they do. These complaints will be swept out from the system. Don't west these and their kindred disorders because your atomach.

Is foul.

FOR SCROPULA, ERYSTERIAS, and all diseases of the Skin, take the Pills freely and frequently, to keep the bowels open. The eruptions will generally soon begin to, dinjnish and disappear. Many dreadful ulcers and sores have been healed up by the purging and purifying effect of these Pills, and some disgusting diseases, which seemed to anturate the whole system, have completely yielded to their influence, leaving the sufferer in perfect health? Patients! your duty to society forbids that you should? Therefore yourself around the world covered with pingules, blotches, ulcers, sores, and all or any of the another clean diseases of the skin, because your system wants eleansing.

To Punirr THE Broom, they are the best medicines ever discovered. They should be taken freely and frequently, and the impurities which sow the seeds of incurable diseases will be swept out of the system like chaff? before the wind. By this property they do as much good in preventing sickness as by the remarkable cures which they are making every where.

they are making every where.

Lives Conflict, Jaunders, and all Bilious After total arise from some derangement—either torpidity, congestion, or obstructions of the Liver. Torpidity and congestion vitiate the bile and render it unit for digestion. This is disastrous to the health, and the constitution is frequently undermined by no other cause. Indigestion is the symptom. Obstruction of the duct which empties the bile into the atomach causes the oile to overflow into the blood. This produces Jaundles, with a long and dangetous train of evils. Costiveness, or, alternately, costiveness and diarrhum, pravails. Fares, and melancholy, with sometimes inability to sleep, and sometimes great drowsiness; semetimes there is severe pain in the side; the skin and the white of the pres beginnes a greenish yellow; the atomach acid; the bowels, sore to the touch; the whole system irritable, with a team of our pills taken at night, followed by two or three into the morning, and repeated a few days, will remove the cause of all these troubles. It is wicked to suffer such pains when you can cure them for 25 cents.

Reservation, Gour, and all Informatory Foers are rapidly cured by the purifying effects of these Pills upon the blood and the stimpling which they afford to the vital principle of Life. AMBROTYPES

H. M. BRAMBLE TNVITES attention to his unrivalled Ambrotype Portraits, which possess the following advantages over the primitive Daguerreotype, vis:-Greater Durability, (as their name implies- Ambrotype being derived from the Greek "Ambrotus," and signifies "imperiabable,") Clearness, Richness, and Brilliancy of appearance. They are free from all metalic glare, and can therefore be seen in any light or taken in any kind of weather.

Letter Portraits! Mr. Bramble is now taking a new and beautiful and of picture for sending in Letters, without increasing the postage. They are as clear and Brilliant as Ambrotypes—being taken by a similar process, and are entirely different from the dull and dark kind of Pictures known as Lettergraphs. Price of the Letter Portraits, $1 each. Pictures Bet in Lockets, Broooks, de.
